L'eques

aprivano con i loro combattimenti i giochi gladiatorii. Erano armati con un elmo provvisto di tesa e visiera, uno scudo piatto e rotondo, una lancia ed una spatha, un'arma con lama molto più lunga del classico gladius. A differenza di molti altri gladiatori che portavano un perizoma (il subligaculum), loro indossavano una tunica. Cominciavano il combattimento a cavallo, quindi smontavano e continuavano la lotta con le spade.
